

SUNRISE EASTER SUNDAY 24TH APRIL 2011

Based on Gospel John 20: 1-19

The morning dark and dreary, so early in the day when Mary Magdalena, went to His tomb to pray.
How she missed Lord Jesus, He she loved most dear.
But what she saw amazed her, and filled her full of fear!
The stone no longer covered the entrance to the tomb.
The cave entirely empty; just dark and deepest gloom.
Unsure where was her Master, the disciples now she found.
Rushed they to the graveyard, observing cloths along the ground.
Came these from the body, of Christ who had been dead!
One rolled neatly sep'rate, for it had bound His head.
Enlightenment overcame them, at last they knew the truth.
Death no longer triumphed! Before them was the proof!
Christ from death had risen; He lived just as before!
Hope now surged within them, to stay for evermore!

CHRIST HAS DIED
CHRIST IS RISEN
CHRIST WILL COME AGAIN

O Blessed was that morning; no longer slaves to sin!
Jesus now had saved us, from all that wrong did bring.
Transgression and omissions, He forgives if we repent.
Cast off the yoke of worry, do as Jesus meant!
Each and every person is special and unique.
His love He gives so freely, no more we need to seek! Cjs.

Easter Sunday at Dawn 2011

The Dawning

The disciples they were grief-struck for Jesus Christ was dead, desolation and great heartache was all they saw ahead.
They did not seem to grasp, that soon Christ would arise,
and when He surely did, they were taken by surprise.
Imagine their great joy, when realisation came and Jesus walked amongst them, calling them by name.
How fortunate too are we, for since we have believed and repented for transgressions, our souls He has reprieved.

So Christians met together, with one thought for this day, to praise and give our thanks, to Lord Jesus as we'd pray.

Truly He was with us, loving Father and our Lord, unconditional in His love, and of that we are assured. Cjs.

The Son is Risen
The Sun is rising
The mist does lay

People praising
in prayer and singing

The sun is shining
A bright new day
First needs of the soul
then feeding the body

Serving the people
That is our goal.

Happy Easter
God bless all and love from Cecilia.
